Teachers' Workshop on 'Helping Children from Single-Parent Families'

About HELP Family Service Centre

HELP (Help Every Lone Parent) Family Service Centre, affiliated to National Council of Social Service, is a voluntary welfare organisation specially helping single-parent families.

About the Workshop

When separation, divorce or death happens, the families go through a time of change and adjustments. Many school-going children find it challenging to understand the changed family situations and its impact on them. This workshop aims to help teachers gain awareness of how children cope with changes, and thus equip teachers with knowledge and skills to help children adjust effectively.
